An officer’s term shall begin on October 1 or at such other time as the Board of Directors deems necessary or appropriate.

SECTION 6. Removal and Resignation of Officers

Any officer may be removed, with good cause, by the Committee at a regular or special Committee meeting. Removal of an officer requires a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the members. The Board of Directors may remove an officer for any reason.

Any officer may resign at any time for any reason by giving written notice to the Committee. Any resignation shall take effect at the date of the receipt of that notice or at any later time specified in that notice; and, unless otherwise specified in that notice, the acceptance of the resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

The Secretary shall cause to be kept at the Tribal Office a book or binder of minutes of all meetings and actions of the Committee and subcommittees, with the time and place of holding, whether regular or special, and if special, how authorized, the notice given, and the names of those present at Committee meetings or subcommittee meetings.

The Secretary shall ensure that the Committee binder is updated after every meeting, with the record of attendance, minutes, and any actions taken, and that such binder is maintained and accessible at the Tribal Office. The Secretary also shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Committee and/or these Bylaws.

SECTION 11. Vacancies

(B) Any member may resign effective on giving written notice to the Committee’s Chairperson, the Secretary, or the Committee as a whole, unless the written notice specifies a later time for that resignation to become effective. If the resignation of a member is effective at a future time, the Committee, subject to approval by the Board of Directors, may elect a successor to take office when the resignation becomes effective.

(C) No reduction in the authorized number of members shall have the effect of removing any member before that member’s term of office expires.

CHAPTER 3. COMMITTEE MEETINGS

SECTION 1. Meetings

(A) Regular Meetings. The Committee shall hold regular meetings, the time, dates, and places to be established by the Committee. Notice of a regularly called meeting will be provided no less than seven (7) days prior to the date of the meeting. Notice of the time and place of the meeting shall be delivered in writing to each member personally, or via the U.S. Postal Service, electronic mail, or facsimile. The notice must be addressed to each member at their address as listed in the Committee’s member records. These notices must be sent in sufficient time to be received by the member in the time period stated above.

(C) Board of Directors Notice/Attendance. The Board of Directors shall receive prior notice of all Committee meetings, whether regular or special, in the same manner notice is provided to each member under the above provisions. Any Board of Directors member may participate in any such meeting as he or she desires.

SECTION 3. Quorum

A majority of Committee members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Every act or decision done or made by a majority of the members present at a meeting duly noticed and in which a quorum is present shall be regarded as the act of the Committee. SECTION 4. Waiver of Notice

The transactions of any meeting of the Committee, however called and noticed or wherever held, shall be as valid as though at a meeting duly held after regular call and notice, if a quorum is present and if, either before or after the meeting, each of the members not present signs a written waiver of notice, a consent to holding the meeting or an approval of the minutes. The waiver of notice or consent need not specify the purpose of the meeting. All such waivers, consents, and approvals shall be filed with the member records or made a part of the minutes of the meeting. Notice of a meeting shall also be deemed given to any member who attends the meeting without protesting at its commencement about the lack of notice to that member.

SECTION 5. Adjournment

A majority of the members present, whether or not constituting a quorum, may adjourn any meeting to another time and place. However, notice of such adjournment must be provided to all other Committee members and the Board of Directors by electronic mail or personal notification.

SECTION 6. Action Without Meeting

Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Committee may be taken without a meeting, if all members of the Committee shall individually or collectively consent in writing to that action. Such action by written consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote of the Committee. Such written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Committee.

SECTION 7. Parliamentary Authority

The rules contained in the most current edition of Robert’s Rules of Order Newly Revised shall govern the Committee in all cases to which they apply, except to the extent they conflict with Tribal law, including this Code, and/or any special rules of order that the Committee or Board of Directors may adopt.

CHAPTER 4. SUBCOMMITTEES

SECTION 1. Authority

The Committee shall establish such subcommittees as deemed necessary. The Committee shall establish the function of the subcommittees and they shall operate under the Committee’s general supervision. Any member of the Committee or its subcommittees having the right to vote shall be disqualified from voting on any matter in which that member has a personal financial interest.
SECTION 2. Ethical Standards

Any member of the Committee or its subcommittees having the right to vote shall disclose to the decision-making body any past, current, or prospective associations, personal, financial, or otherwise, if a reasonable person would have concern that such association may influence a decision.

CHAPTER 6. RECORDS AND REPORTS

SECTION 1. Maintenance and Inspection of Records and Report

The Committee shall cause to be kept at the Tribal Office the original or a copy of records and reports, as amended to date, which shall be open to inspection by the members at all reasonable times during office hours.

The accounting books and records and minutes of proceedings of the members and the Committee, and any subcommittee, shall be kept at the Tribal Office. The minutes shall be kept in written form and the accounting books and records shall be kept either in written form or in any other form capable of being converted into written form.

SECTION 3. Inspection by Members and Board of Director Members

Every Committee member and every Board of Directors member shall have the absolute right at any reasonable time to inspect all books, records, and documents of every kind of the Committee. The right of inspection includes the right to copy and make extracts of documents.
